

Grow Your Entrepreneurial Mindset, Future-proof Your Career!

Network for Teaching Entrepreneurship (NFTE) presents Operation: Mindset!—an engine that sparks and powers up the 8 domains of the entrepreneurial mindset. Thinking about career progression, professional effectiveness, boosting productivity, entrepreneurial endeavors, leveling up, advancing aspirations, or simply redirecting the course of your career? Skillfully maneuver your way to career success with this flexible entrepreneurial program.

Spanning 20-40 hours, Operation: Mindset! can be customized as a standalone workshop or seamlessly integrated into business and entrepreneurship education, career prep, workforce development, leadership training, and corporate programs. Confidently set out on your unique career journey and get ready for the future of work, now.

Operation Mindset!↑ Powered by NFTE

This mindset isn't just about business; it's a compass for success in education, career, life, community, and beyond.

Begin and end with NFTE's Entrepreneurial Mindset Index (EMI)™ Survey to measure the mindset transformation, then craft action plans to leverage this entrepreneurial superpower in conquering obstacles and achieving goals!

Operation: Mindset! includes Kyle Garman's book, "The Entrepreneurial Mindset: Preparing Our Next Generation for the Future of Work." NFTE's white paper, "Measuring Entrepreneurial Mindset in Youth," highlights that 1 in 3 U.S. employers prioritize hiring candidates with entrepreneurial experience. Consequently, fostering entrepreneurial thinking becomes crucial for enhancing human capital and employability.

"The ability to identify potential solutions in problems and spot opportunities from a different perspective has been key to my success ... and has also led me to more impactful outcomes in my personal and professional life."

— Jason Silveira, NFTE alumnus
